NEBRASKA BROADBAND
CONNECTING

Engaging People. Linking the World.

broadband.nebraska.gov

POWER of Business

Remote Video/Sensing

HOW CAN YOU USE IT?

- Secure assets from remote locations
- Monitor processes and functions
- Monitor temperature or other conditions
- Monitor supplies and reduce unnecessary trips
- Monitor location of family and employees

WHAT TECHNOLOGY IS AVAILABLE?

- iCam: sends you a text message when motion is detected
- Belkin Wemo: control home electronics from your smartphone
- Axis: the leading network camera company

AIM Institute

Nebraska Information Technology Commission

Nebraska Department of Economic Development

Nebraska Public Service Commission

University of Nebraska–Lincoln

The Broadband Mapping and Planning Initiative is funded through a grant to the Nebraska Public Service Commission by the U.S. Department of Commerce's National Telecommunications and Information Administration and aims to increase broadband adoption and utilization. Project partners include Nebraska Public Service Commission, University of Nebraska–Lincoln, Nebraska Information Technology Commission, Nebraska Department of Economic Development and AIM Institute