

How to Become an Advocate for the Nebraska BEAD Challenge Process

Advocate

ad·vo·cate

noun

/ˈadvəkət/

Local or tribal government entities or nonprofits that will advocate on behalf of their communities in the Nebraska BEAD Challenge Process.

To participate in the Nebraska BEAD Challenge Process, Advocates must have a Tier E license from CostQuest. The Tier E license is free. This process only needs to be completed once.

1. Obtain an FCC Registration Number by following the steps at:

<https://www.fcc.gov/wireless/support/knowledge-base/universal-licensing-system-uls-resources/getting-fcc-registration>

2. Request a Tier E License:

- Step-by-Step instructions: <https://costquest.info/3EWIGXJ>
- Apply here: <https://apps.costquest.com/ntiatiererequest/>

Questions: email IFAsupport@costquest.com or access resources at <https://broadbandusa.ntia.doc.gov/policies/CostQuest-Licensing>